THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF THE History of Sport

Volume 26 Number 6 May 2009

Special Issue: Representing the Nation: Sport, Control, Contestation, and the Mexican Olympics
Guest Editors: Keith Brewster and Claire Brewster

Prologue: The Genre of Sport as a Means to an End

Sport and Society in Post-revolutionary Mexico

The Rank Outsider: Mexico City's Bid for the 1968 Olympic Games

Pride and Prejudice: Foreign Perceptions of Mexico as an Olympic Host

Cleaning the Cage: Mexico City's Preparations for the Olympic Games

The Mexican Student Movement of 1968: An Olympic Perspective

Mexico City's Hosting of the 1968 Olympic Games

Epilogue: The Legacy of the Mexico City Olympics

Routledge Taylor & Francis Group